Colourfulness and diversity of Tbilisi is noticeable in the French writer's records every step of the way.

According to Dumas, under the instructions of French consul Baron Antoine Finot, he was accommodated in an outstanding house of a rich Georgian – Ivane Zubalashvili at the Theatre Square (current Freedom Square). However, the house was nothing compared to Tbilisi Opera Theatre. The building reminded him of Pompey's Theatre, while the hall reminded him of a fairy castle. Dumas said that he had seen nothing like the hall of Tbilisi Theatre.
